

WHERE TO FIND SHOWS IN YOUR AREA.

1— IF you are member of YEPA many times our office will send you a private email with a show that is located near you. This is done if a show sends us the information and we pass it on to our members.

As a member of YEPA if you are looking for Sanctioned Showmanship Meets this may be found on our website: www.youthexhibitionpoultry.org.

#2—The most up to date listings we have found is on the Poultry Show Central website. They list the shows by states as well as districts. They list swaps meets and most of the local county and state fairs as well as APA and ABA Sanctioned shows. This website is very informative and kept up to date on a regular basis.

#3—Many clubs advertise their shows on Facebook under their own private facebook names. If you don't find what you are looking for on facebook the APA website has a list of several local club groups and their links. This may be found under the Member Resources area dropdown. <http://www.amerpoultryassn.com/>
