

SHOWMANSHIP JUDGE CERTIFICATION

Please read the Rules & Guidelines of the Showmanship Points Program.

Any members wishing to participate further in the Showmanship Points Program must be FULLY active in the A.C. E. Program and 16 years old to apply to become a showmanship judge.

You must have earned and completed the levels for the Coop Tender and Flock Tender level and the Flock Master level. You must begin working on the Poultry Master level.

For a full showmanship judges certification you must be working on your Poultry Master. Your mentor and youth leader (if available) must recommend that you are qualified to judge showmanship if you are in the midst of earning your Poultry Master badge. If you have completed your Poultry Master you will be certified to judge the Pee Wee, Junior and Intermediate showmanship classes. At age 18, when you are no longer eligible to participate in Senior showmanship you may take the Senior showmanship exam.

To be certified by YEPA Poultry Club a member must pass a written exam.
